Victor 12 Named One of Central Florida's Best Places to Work

Victor 12 was recently honored to be named one of Central Florida's best places to work by the Orlando Business Journal.

The magazine's June 13 issue profiles over 70 companies nominated by employees via a survey asking questions about things like teamwork, job satisfaction, and benefits. Among the reasons Victor 12 stands out, according to the magazine, are professional conference attendance, recognition of accomplishments, and opportunities to grow with a young company.

"We've worked hard to build a collaborative environment where employees feel comfortable taking risks and sharing ideas," CEO Burt Williams said. "It's gratifying to know that what we've built together feels like a success to the whole team."
